Virtually There

Virtually There provides a convenient way for travelers to view all their important travel information in one Web-based location – simplifying the travel experience.

Via the Web interface, users can view and print:
- eItinerary – available 24-hours after travel on last segment
- eTicket Receipt – available 13 months after ticketed
- elnvoice – available 90 days after ticketed

Along with this important travel and expense information, travelers can access:
- Travel alerts
- Flight notification and tracking
- Visa and passport information
- Destination content
- Currency converter

Virtually There provides travel information when and where travelers need it by making the information accessible from the Internet, a Blackberry or PDA. The site also enables adding travel data directly to a desktop calendar.

It is your responsibility to verify the accuracy of flight times and numbers 24 hrs prior to departure with the airlines or travel agency. All flights are subject to change without notice, and though we make every effort to contact you, the agency cannot be held responsible.

This fare is nonrefundable. Any changes may result in a change fee plus any fare difference. Reservations must be canceled by flight departure time or the value of ticket is lost.
